RE: Speaking Invitation
New York Republican County Committee
New York, NY
15 February 1989

On behalf of the New York Republican County Committee, New York State Senator Roy M. Goodman has invited you to be one of the guest speakers at a Gala Victory Celebration to be held in conjunction with the Committee's annual Lincoln Day Dinner, at the Waldorf Astoria in New York on 15 February 1989. The suggested format is 10-15 minutes of remarks on a subject of your choice, with no questions and answers. You could expect an audience of 1500-2000 leaders from the banking, law, business, cultural, and civic communities. The media will be widely represented and some foreign nationals will probably attend.

Past speakers include President-elect George Bush, Governor Tom Kean, and Senator Richard Lugar. Last year's speakers were former Secretary of Education William Bennett, Ambassador to the U.N. Vernon Walters, and Secretary of Housing and Urban Development Samuel Pierce. The committee expects to have two guest speakers this year.

Since you already have eight speaking engagements for the winter and spring months and this is a highly political event, I recommend that you decline this invitation. If you agree, a letter of regret is attached for your signature.

Dear Senator Goodman:

I appreciate your kind invitation to be a guest speaker at the Gala Victory Celebration and Lincoln Day Dinner in New York on February 15th. Unfortunately, as much as I would like to be with your group, I cannot make a commitment at this time. I know you will have a fine evening and I wish you a most successful event.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Webster:

On Wednesday, February 15, 1989, the New York Republican County Committee will hold a Gala Victory Celebration in conjunction with its annual Lincoln Day Dinner in the Grand Ballroom of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

This dinner attracts an exceptional group of leaders from the banking, business, legal, cultural, and civic communities. Our attendance will be approximately 1,500.

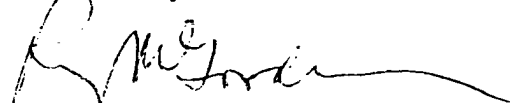

It would be a special pleasure for us to have you as an honored guest speaker. Since this is the largest dinner of its kind held annually in the state, you would be assured of excellent press coverage for any statement you might wish to make.

In the last several years our guest speakers have included Vice-President Bush, Governor Tom Kean, Secretary of Commerce Malcolm Baldrige, Senator Al Simpson, and Senator Dick Lugar.

I do hope you will join us but would ask you to let me know just as soon as possible so we can plan accordingly.

Warm personal wishes.

Sincerely,

Roy M. Goodman
